Vancouver, BC, August 3, 2026 – At the heart of Fairmont Pacific Rim's enhanced wellbeing offering is the unveiling of the newly reimagined Fairmont Spa - a transformative renovation that establishes one of Vancouver's most comprehensive luxury wellness destinations.

Designed as a sanctuary where ritual meets recovery, the newly renovated spa has been thoughtfully reimagined alongside the Fairmont Pacific Rim Wellness Club x HOUSE Concepts on the hotel's 5th floor, creating a seamless ecosystem dedicated to movement, restoration, nourishment, and longevity.

The revitalized Fairmont Spa now features 14 luxurious treatment rooms, including two innovative Dream Spa Specialty treatment tables, a Himalayan salt sauna, steam room, private women's lounge, co-ed relaxation lounge, and an expansive outdoor spa terrace complete with a mineral wellness jacuzzi, dry sauna, fire pits, and relaxation loungers. Together, these spaces create an immersive environment designed to restore both body and mind.

Rooted in a philosophy of intentional restoration, treatments are designed to deliver measurable outcomes through technical therapies. The spa's elevated retail offering brings together a curated collection of high-performance skincare, luxury haircare, contemporary resort wear, and exclusive HOUSE i.D athleisure - reflecting a modern approach to wellness, beauty, and lifestyle.

By seamlessly connecting movement, recovery, nourishment, and mindful restoration across every touchpoint, the hotel positions itself as a destination for modern luxury where wellness is thoughtfully embedded into every stay.

This latest evolution further reinforces Fairmont Pacific Rim's position as one of North America's leading luxury lifestyle hotels and establishes the property as a destination where modern wellbeing is not an addition to the guest experience - it is the experience itself.
